Even good pupils hate school for a reason or another .Write down a few lines about why you hate school and your own way to overcome your fear or hatred for school.

-the worst things about school

Maybe you're dealing with worries, stress, or problems that make it hard to concentrate on school work.

- because a bully is bothering / annoying you . Some ill-bred students make you dread school as they get on your way to threaten you / steal your valuables and ask you to keep silent otherwise you would be beaten

-you don't get along with a teacher .Some teachers are bossy / strict and are not comprehensive . Sometimes it's a problem with your classes and school work as teachers pile you up with much homework and you feel overburdened

- You might feel different or worry that you don't have enough friends

- maybe the work is too hard, or you don't feel as smart as the other kids. You may be getting farther and farther behind, and it may seem like you will never catch up.

The best thing about school

- It's where I can meet my best friends and share happy and sad moments together

- I have amazing teachers that stand by our sides and broaden our knowledge about the world .they speak slowly and fluently to explain the lessons .they are patient and understanding

-school is where I'll be building my future and achieve my goals (get a good job)

What makes a good school is a balance between balance and fun

- you don't want to learn if the lessons are boring and all you have to do is to memorize them
