I don't have a lot of spare time because I am a mother of three children and a teacher at the same time. I have many things to do for my family and my students but what I really enjoy doing in mytime especially in the holiday is the net, joining my English club, and checking my e-mails because I like to keep touch with my students and my friends. I like to learn new things so I try to download new programs. I think my computer brings the world into my living room. I am never than when I am playing and making cake with my kids. They give to my life. I sometimes love to go fora at sunset with my sister. We speak and laugh together and I find walking very relaxing.
