Hi, how are keeping? Fine I hope. Sorry for not writing because I've been busy lately. I know that you were sick and you didn't attend my birthday party, that's why I'm writing this e-mail to tell you all about my birthday party. The party was amazing! First and foremost, my mum prepared a very delicious chocolate cake. She prepared some refreshments as well. My dad decorated the drawing room with colorful $\sqrt[4]{6}$ allons and ribbons. How beautiful was the room. At 5p.m, the guests came to our house. They were very elegant! During the party, they were chatting warmly while I was sipping a soft drink with my best friend. One of the highlights of the party was a performance from a group of entertainers. I really had a blast with my friends dancing and singing. Then I blew out the candles while my family and my friends were cheering I was overwhelmed when I opened all the gifts and ound an IPone! What a surprise! This birthday was such a memorable one. That's all. Please, get well and write me soon.

What did I do to you tell me why you tell me why joke or what you did in the train last time ruined my life I can't imagine how someone can be so awful like that we didn't even know each other that's much we're just friends what did you do that what's happened to you I was so terrified I screamed like I never did in my life I was choked and what hurt me the most that the person who did it was you you're in my same grade year I can't believe it how can you be so mean like that I didn't do anything to you you destroyed my life that night was adorable nightmare for me I don't know if you feel guilt now or no but I hope so The hardest thing to do is to forgive someone who is not remorseful about hurting you but forgiving them is for your own sake and not theirs. so I will forgive you not for you but for me too
