LESSON ONE : FAMILY RELATIONSHIPS/READING COMPREHENSION

TEXT 1

START 18

My relationship with my family has made me who I am today. Without my family. I would not know to interact with people, or how to show love, a key to any relationship. My reliable and supportive family has also made me more self-confident individual, and I am not afraid to be myself, thanks to them.

Going through hardships in my life was easier because my family was always there for me to guide me with wise advice. I have learned from family, and I hope that someday I can teach and support others the way my family has done to me. It's funny how often we take family for granted, especially when they are the closest people in our lives. Wouldn't you agree?

1-Choose the best alternative:

- a-My family has made me who I am today means.
  - .My family helped me be famous.
  - .My family shaped my personality.
  - .My family helped me succeed in my studies.

b-People often take family for granted means:

- .people don't realize how important a family is.
- .people always quarrel with their family members.
- .people often visit their family members.

2-According to Stuart what qualities should a good family have? Mention four from the text.

- * .....
- * .....
- * .....
- * .....

3- Scan the text and circle the moral values taught by a family.

trust-freedom-affection-peace-communication-tolerance-support-sharing

4-Find in the text equivalents to:

- *scared=.....
- *turn into adulthood=.....
- *person=.....
- *the most intimate=.....
- *problems=.....
