(1) Last Sunday Sami and Nizar got up early and got everything ready to go off for a picnic in the nearby countryside. They looked over their bicycles and they carried their bags with food and drinks.

(2) It was a wonderful morning. The sun was shining and there were no clouds in the sky. Sami and Nizar rode quite slowly out of the town to the countryside. When they had been riding for about two hours, Sami said: "I am hungry, let's have something to eat." They started to look for a good place for a picnic. Sami said: "Let's go in here out of the sun, it's too hot." "Good idea." Said Nizar. They jumped off their bicycles and sat on the ground under a tall tree. They ate some sandwiches and chocolate. Then they drank some water and apple juice. It was great fun to be away from the noise of the town. The two boys enjoyed the fresh air and the singing of the birds.

(3) When it was time to go home, Sami said: "Don't throw paper, Nizar! We must keep our environment clean." Nizar apologized for doing so. He cleaned the place. Then both of them rode back home. When they arrived there, they were very tired. They got in their room and slept.
