Over the past thirty years or so the quality of many (people's lives-lives people- people lives) has deteriorated in some respects because of (technological – technology-technic) progress. Those people living near airports are (constant- constantly-consist) assailed by the noise of increasingly (larger-more large-largest) and more powerful jet aircraft taking off and landing. We have ugly buildings which have sprung up in towns and cities. Some of these are blocks of flats-high-rise buildings built (because of –thanks to –for) the high price of land, which seem more like breeding boxes than houses (where –which- that) people have space to live. Worse still, much of our building effort has been channeled into the (construction-destruction-distraction) of more and more large office blocks at the expense (of-in-with) much needed housing for the growing urban population.

My first visit to London was one and a half years ago. It was a wonderful.....
I stayed in the city for three weeks, and I had many..... I visited all the famous places. I'd like to tell you about some of the places I visited in this beautiful city. When I dreamed of seeing London in the past, I always wanted to see the Tower Bridge and the famous Big Ben clock. I visited these places, and I went on a tourist boat on the River Thames and saw two First, I went to the Tower of London, and I want to say that it is a very interesting ..... place. I found out that a long time ago, it was a prison. Later it became a castle for the royal family. Or maybe it is the reverse; I'm not sure, but later they left this place and lived in Buckingham Palace and Kensington Palace. Trafalgar Square is a popular place for students and other young people. You will find lots of pigeons there. If you have time, you can feed them and they will be very happy. You can buy special food for them, but be careful! Tons of birds are going ..... you if you feed them. I also was with the museums in London. They're very popular. I found them interesting because you can learn about the history of England. I had a wonderful time in London. I really liked it because it is a city that is rich history.
