Class: 6th Form

John and Beth are two English children. They are good friends and study in the same school, but in different classes. They are also neighbours. John and Beth's apartments are on the second floor.

This morning looks a fine day. It's hot and the sun is shining. And it isn't windy because it is spring.

John and Beth are riding their bicycles in the park. They are singing lovely songs and enjoying the sound of the birds and the beautiful colours of the flowers.

John and Beth are happy because they haven't got homework to do, and their parents aren't with them.
